Acting Training, Theory of Mind, and Empathy: Is There a Relationship? Pretending to be another person for the enjoyment of others is a peculiar activity, yet acting has been part of society for centuries (Goldstein & Winner, 2010). Most people have in some way been involved in the world of acting, either as actors or audience members.

Acting - Project MUSE

film actors of the period, whereas Olivier's more contrived performance style felt somewhat outmoded by mid-1970s standards. By the time Marathon Man was made, acting that seemed to access and reveal the inner self had taken precedence over acting that adorned the outer self with mannerisms and expressions donned like a costume.
